Please arrive at least five minutes before your scheduled appointment time.

For daytime appointments, please find a seat in the lobby and your therapist will greet you at the time of your appointment.

For evening appointments, the entry door may be locked upon your arrival. Please text your therapist at 804-627-2365 to indicate your arrival and you will be greeted at the door at the start time of scheduled appointment.

This is a security precaution generally reserved for evening appointments. If the door is locked at any other time, follow evening appointment protocol above.

Be advised that other clinicians have offices in the suite and other people may also be waiting. Please respect the confidentiality of anyone you may encounter.

Help yourself to water or use of the restroom.

Therapy sessions are in progress, so please use a soft voice while in common areas.
